CNT 1060 Cisco Routers I
4 Credits
4 Class Hours

Introduction to Networks is the first of two courses leading to the Cisco Certified Entry Networking Technician (CCENT) designation and is the first of four courses leading to the Cisco Certified Network Associate (CCNA R&S) designation. This course introduces Networking Academy students to the networking field. Topics include Network terminology, Network protocols, Local-area networks (LANs), Wide-area networks (WANs), Open System Interconnection (OSI) model, Cabling, Routers, Internet Protocol (IP) addressing, and Network standards. Prerequisite(s): None

Textbook and Other Materials:
Textbook: Introduction to Networks, Companion Guide
ISBN 13: 9781587133169
Lab workbook: Introduction to Networks, Lab Manual
ISBN 13: 9781587133121
Lab software: None
Reference Materials: None

Course Outcomes:
Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:
- Perform basic binary and related networking math and subnetting
- Identify types of networks, network devices, and network protocols and their functions
- Explain both the OSI and TCP/IP reference models of networking
- Understand and make basic configurations for Ethernet on PCs, Routers, and Switches

Course Assessments:
The following performance assessments will be used to demonstrate students’ understanding, knowledge and skills:
- Online Tests – administered through the Cisco Networking Academy
- Online Final Exam – administered through the Cisco Networking Academy
- Lab Exercises – completion of hands-on tasks as assigned in the lab manual
- Optional Quizzes – administered by NSCC instructor
- Skills Test – hands-on test involving successfully setting up a network and troubleshooting errors. Will be graded for successful functioning of network according to given criteria.
Grading Policy:
Requirements to pass the course:
- Pass the skills exam
- Take the final exam
- Meet all attendance requirements
- Complete the course feedback form
- Obtain a passing grade average

Grading Scale:
Grades will be determined as follows (Average = Total points earned / Total points):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade Average</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>89.5 – 100.0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>79.5 – 89.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>69.5 – 79.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>59.5 – 69.4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Attendance Policy:
A student is expected to attend all scheduled classes and laboratories. Each instructor will formulate an attendance policy and provide it on the course syllabus. Absences are counted from the first scheduled meeting of the class, and it is the responsibility of each student to know the attendance policy of each instructor in whose class he/she is enrolled. If a student is absent from a class, he/she should give an advanced explanation to the instructor. Absences in a course may affect a student’s final grade. The student is responsible for all assigned work in the course regardless of excused or unexcused absences. Tardiness may also affect a student’s final grade. Failure to attend class will result in a final course grade of “FA” or “FN” (see explanation below) depending on the individual instructor’s course policy.
FA = failure, attendance-related (unofficial withdrawal) Last recorded date of attendance required. FN = failure, never attended class (unofficial withdrawal)

Student Communication Channels:
It is the student’s responsibility to check D2L and MyNSCC email on a regular basis. These are the official communication channels between the college and students. Students are responsible for the information communicated through those channels. D2L contains specific course information and MyNSCC contains information important for other purposes.

Early Warning System:
Nashville State Community College has implemented an Early Warning System to notify students via e-mail about academic problems such as poor classroom attendance, poor performance on assignments/tests, poor communication skills, late/missing assignments, and/or lack of classroom participation. Please note that Early Warning Alerts do not affect a student’s academic standing.

Inclement Weather Policy:
In the event of an inclement weather event, check the Nashville State web site home page at http://www.nscc.edu for announcements on campus closures. Campus closures will also be announced on local television stations (channels 2, 4, 5, and 17). When classes are cancelled, an online assignment will be posted in NS Online. Check your NS Online email for a message from your instructor regarding your online assignment requirements. Even though classes may be cancelled, some areas, i.e. Testing Center, may be open. However, you should check before commuting to campus.
The Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Director of Security are responsible for cancellation decisions during an inclement weather event for the Nashville State main campus and the Southeast campus. Cookeville, Waverly, and Dickson Campus Directors will make class cancellation decisions based on conditions in their respective areas. Decisions about class cancellations are based on actual conditions, not forecasts. The perspective used for making
If a student believes that he/she has been erroneously accused of academic dishonesty and if they wish to request any special accommodations for any courses in which they are enrolled, contact the Student Disabilities Office at 353.3721.

Classroom Misconduct:
Nashville State Community College has a zero tolerance policy for disruptive conduct in the classroom. Students whose behavior disrupts the classroom will be subject to disciplinary sanctions. Please consult your Student Handbook for more specific details.

Nashville State complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you wish to request any special accommodations for any courses in which you are enrolled, contact the Student Disabilities Office at 353.3721.

Academic Dishonesty (Honor Code):
Any form of academic dishonesty, cheating, plagiarizing, or other academic misconduct is prohibited. *Plagiarism may result from: (1) failing to cite quotations and borrowed ideas, (2) failing to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks, and (3) failing to put summaries and paraphrases in your own words (A Writer's Reference 331). Academic dishonesty may be defined as, but is not limited to, intentionally trying to deceive by claiming credit for the work of another person, using information from a web page or source without citing the reference, fraudulently using someone else's work on an exam, paper, or assignment, recycling your own work from another course, purchasing papers or materials from another source and presenting them as your own, attempting to obtain exams/materials/assignments in advance of the date of administration by the instructor, impersonating someone else in a testing situation, providing confidential test information to someone else, submitting the same assignment in two different classes without requesting both instructor’s permission, allowing someone else to copy or use your work, using someone else’s work to complete your own, altering documents, transcripts or grades, and forging a faculty/staff member’s signature.

In addition to other possible disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed through regular college procedures as a result of academic dishonesty the instructor has the authority to assign an “F” or a “Zero” for the exercise, paper, or examination or to assign an “F” for the course. Students may appeal through the appropriate college grade appeal procedures.

Appeals Process:
If a student believes that he/she has been erroneously accused of academic dishonesty and if his/her final grade has been lowered as a result, the student may appeal the case through the appropriate college grade appeal procedures as outlined in the Student Handbook.

NOTE: This syllabus is meant simply as a guide and overview of the course. Some items are subject to change or may be revised at the instructor’s discretion. Each instructor will further clarify their criteria for grading, classroom procedures, attendance, exams and dates, etc. on his/her course syllabus.
