Course Description:
A study of identification, culture, characteristics and use of plants. Topics include nomenclature, identification, growth and cultural requirements, soil preferences, and landscape applications are emphasized. Students acquire knowledge in proper selection and utilization of plant materials.

Credits: 3

Course Outcomes:
Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Identify, classify, and give growth characteristics, landscape use, culture, pest, and disease problems for species of landscape plants in Tennessee.
- Discuss vegetative, floral, and fruitful characteristics of angiosperms.
- Explain the morphology of gymnosperms and outline their orders and families.
- Describe the nomenclature of cultivated plants.
- Pronounce botanical names of plant species.
- Explain method of plant identification.
- Classify plant use according to function.

Attendance/Withdrawal Policy:
Absences in excess of the total number of class hours in one week may result in a drop in a letter grade.

Failure to attend class will result in a final course grade of “FA” or “FN”
- FA – Failure – attendance related (last date of attendance required)
- FN – Failure – never attended class

It is the student’s responsibility to check D2L and MyNSCC email on a regular basis. These are the official communication channels between the college and students. Students are responsible for the information communicated through those channels. D2L contains specific course information and MyNSCC contains information important for other purposes.

Nashville State Community College has implemented an Early Warning System to notify students via e-mail about academic problems such as poor classroom attendance, poor performance on assignments/tests, poor communication skills, late/missing assignments, and/or lack of classroom participation. Please note that Early Warning Alerts do not affect a student’s academic standing.

Course Competencies:
Nomenclature of cultivated plants
- Common and botanical names
- Taxonomic ranks
  - Order
  - Family
  - Genus
  - Species
  - Subspecies
  - Variety, cultivars

Geography of cultivated plants
- Vegetational changes with altitude and latitude
- Climates of the U.S.
- U.S.D.A. cold hardiness and heat tolerance maps
- Vegetation and climates of Tennessee

Plant groups in cultivation
- Angiosperms
  - Monocots
  - Dicots
- Gymnosperms
  - Conifers
  - Ginkgoales
  - Gnetales
- Ferns

Angiosperms
- Vegetative characteristics in plant identification
  - Root types
  - Growth forms
  - Modified stems
  - Leaves
  - Orders and families
- Floral characteristics in plant identification
  - The flower: reproductive and accessory organs
  - Plant sexual processes
  - Inflorescence types
- Fruit characteristics in plant identification
  - Fruit structure
  - Fruit types

Angiosperms in the landscape and their culture
- Annual and perennial flowers
- Shrubs
- Trees
- Vines
- Ground covers
- Grasses (turf and ornamental)

Gymnosperms
- Morphology
  - Growth habits
  - Leaf characteristics
  - Reproductive characteristics
  - Orders and families

Gymnosperms in the landscape and their culture

Ferns in the landscape and their culture
- Morphology
  - Growth Habits
  - Leaf characteristics
  - Reproductive life cycle

Accommodations:
Nashville State complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Consult with the office of Student Disability Services. If you need any accommodation(s) for this class, notify the instructor by the second class meeting.
Classroom Misconduct and Procedures:
Nashville State Community College has a zero tolerance policy for disruptive conduct in the classroom. Students whose behavior disrupts the classroom will be subject to disciplinary sanctions. The instructor has primary responsibility for control over classroom behavior and maintenance of academic integrity. He/she can order temporary removal or exclusion from the classroom of any student engaged in disruptive conduct or conduct which violates the general rules and regulations of the College. Disruptive behavior in the classroom may be defined as, but is not limited to, behavior that obstructs or disrupts the learning environment (e.g., offensive language, harassment of students and professors, repeated outbursts from a student which disrupt the flow of instruction or prevents concentration on the subject taught, failure to cooperate in maintaining classroom decorum, etc.), the continued use of any electronic or other noise or light emitting device which disturbs others (e.g., disturbing noises from beepers, cell phones, palm pilots, lap-top computers, games, etc.). Each student should refer to the current Nashville State Student Handbook for guidelines for student conduct.

Academic Dishonesty:
Any form of academic dishonesty, cheating, plagiarizing, or other academic misconduct is prohibited. “Plagiarism may result from: (1) failing to cite quotations and borrowed ideas, (2) failing to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks, and (3) failing to put summaries and paraphrases in your works” (A Writer’s Reference, 331). Academic dishonesty may be defined as, but is not limited to, intentionally trying to deceive by claiming credit for the work of another person, using information from a web page or source without citing the reference, fraudulently using someone else’s work on an exam, paper, or assignment, recycling your own work from another course, purchasing papers or materials from another source and presenting them as your own, attempting to obtain exams/materials/assignments in advance of the date of administration by the instructor, impersonating someone else in a testing situation, providing confidential test information to someone else, submitting the same assignment in two different classes without requesting both instructors’ permission, allowing someone else to copy or use your work, using someone else’s work to complete your own, altering documents, transcripts or grades, and forging a faculty/staff member’s signature.

In addition to other possible disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed through regular college procedures as a result of academic dishonesty, the instructor has the authority to assign an “F” or a “Zero” for the exercise, paper or examination, or to assign an “F” for the course.

If a student believes that he/she has been erroneously accused of academic dishonesty and if his/her final grade has been lowered as a result, the student may appeal the case through the appropriate college grade appeal procedures.

NOTE:
This syllabus is a master syllabus. Specific course requirements are subject to revision at the discretion of the individual instructor. A course syllabus will be provided the first day of class.
