Class Participation:
Tactical shotgun is a class in the safe and proper operation of the shotgun as it relates to police tactical use. There will be classroom presentations where the student will be introduced to the theoretical and mechanical aspects of this field of study. The student will then proceed to various dry-fire exercises which will prepare them for actual live-fire. We will spend time on the range so each student should dress comfortably and in accordance with the weather.

Academic Dishonesty Policy:
Any form of academic dishonesty, cheating, plagiarizing, or other academic misconduct is prohibited. “Plagiarism may result from: (1) failing to cite quotations and borrowed ideas, (2) failing to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks, and (3) failing to put summaries and paraphrases in your own words” (A Writer’s Reference 331).

Academic dishonesty may be defined as, but is not limited to, intentionally trying to deceive by:
- claiming credit for the work of another person, using information from a web page or source without citing the reference
- fraudulently using someone else’s work on an exam, paper, or assignment
- recycling your own work from another course
- purchasing papers or materials from another source and presenting them as your own
- attempting to obtain exams/materials/assignments in advance of the date of administration by the instructor
- impersonating someone else in a testing situation
- providing confidential test information to someone else
- submitting the same assignment in two different classes without requesting both instructor’s permission
- allowing someone else to copy or use your work
- using someone else’s work to complete your own
- altering documents, transcripts or grades
- forging a faculty/staff member’s signature

In addition to other possible disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed through regular College procedures as a result of academic dishonesty, the instructor has the authority to assign an “F” or a “ZERO” for the exercise, paper, or examination, or to assign an “F” for the course.

Classroom Conduct Policy:
Nashville State has a zero tolerance policy for disruptive conduct in the classroom.
- The instructor has primary responsibility for control over classroom behavior and maintenance of academic integrity.
- He/she can order temporary removal or exclusion from the classroom of any student engaged in disruptive conduct, or conduct which violates the general rules and regulations of the College.
- Disruptive behavior in the classroom that obstructs or disrupts the learning environment is defined as:

Revised 7/11/11
o Offensive language
o Harassment of students or professors
o Repeated outbursts from a student which disrupt the flow of instruction or prevent concentration on the subject taught
o Failure to cooperate in maintaining classroom decorum
o Continued use of any electronic or other noise or light emitting device which disturbs others;
  - Beepers
  - Cell phones
  - Palm pilots
  - Lap-top computers
  - Games

• Students who are removed from class for disruptive behavior will not be allowed to return until the issue is resolved.

Additionally, no eating in the classroom is allowed; no wearing of sunglasses is allowed in class, except in cases prescribed by a physician; sleeping or lounging in class is considered disruptive behavior and grounds for immediate dismissal.

Use of Cellular Telephones and Pagers in Classrooms:
Students who are required to carry pagers and/or have cell phones for employment and/or family responsibilities must inform the instructor at the beginning of the semester concerning the necessity for the pager/cell phone. The instructor and student will discuss the need(s) for the pager/cell phone and a decision will be made by the instructor concerning the use of the pager/cell phone. In cases where pagers/cell phones are required and allowed by the instructor, the pager/cell phone must not disrupt the classroom. Students who violate the terms of agreement on the use of pagers/cell phones will forfeit the use of the privilege. Students will not be excused to make telephone calls during examination periods.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) STATEMENT:
Nashville State Technical Community College complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you wish to request any accommodation(s) for this class, please notify the instructor as soon as possible. Students should not be given special accommodations in the classroom unless an accommodation form from Student Disability Services is completed and distributed to the faculty member.
