A student is expected to attend all scheduled classes. Students must be present at the time roll is called in order to be counted present. Students who are absent, and wish to be excused for those absences, must provide written documentation supporting their non-attendance. 10% of unexcused absences will result in a letter grade demotion. Students who violate the attendance policy will be given a final grade of “FA” (failure, attendance-related) or “FN” (failure, never attended class).

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:
Any form of academic dishonesty, cheating, plagiarizing, or other academic misconduct is prohibited. Plagiarism may result from (1) failing to cite quotations and borrowed ideas, (2) failing to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks, and (3) failing to put summaries and paraphrases in your own words. Academic dishonesty may be defined as, but is not limited to, intentionally trying to deceive by:
- claiming credit for the work of another person, using information from a web page or source without citing the reference.
- fraudulently using someone else’s work on an exam, paper, or assignment.
- recycling your own work from another course.
- attempting to obtain exams/materials/assignments in advance of the date of administration by the instructor.
- impersonating someone else in a testing situation.
- providing confidential test information to someone else.
- submitting the same assignment in two different classes without requesting both instructors’ permission.
- allowing someone else to copy or use your work.
- using someone else’s work to complete your own.
- altering documents, transcripts or grades.
- forging a faculty/staff member’s signature.

In addition to other possible disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed through regular college procedures as a result of academic dishonesty, the instructor has the authority to assign an F or a Zero for the exercise, paper, or examination, or to assign an F for the course.
