

The NSCC Catalog states:

The purpose of the Occupational Therapy Assistant Program at NSCC is to prepare competent assistant level personnel to work under the supervision of registered therapists in developing, maintaining, or restoring adaptive skills in people whose abilities to engage in desired occupations is hampered by environmental restrictions and/or challenges to their physical or psychological health.