Informational Interview

Note: Before this interview you should have researched the occupation so you should be prepared to ask good question in order to obtain valid and reliable information. Here are some questions that your interview should include but are not limited to:

- Describe a typical day at work.

- How many hours do you normally work in a week?

- What do you see as the potential for growth in this field?

- What can I do now to help me find employment in this field?