Purpose of the Course

In this course you will learn about the history and structure of Special Education in America, aspects of student diversity and disability, curriculum and classroom management considerations as well as evidence-based recommendations for effective teaching. Each student is expected to actively contribute as individuals using online resources that will include communication, documentation of development, time management, and project management skills.

Structure of the Course

This course is divided into 15 weekly modules, which correspond to different chapter topics covered in the textbook. In addition to reading the chapter, you should review the other course resources associated with that module for a deeper understanding of key ideas. Each chapter has a reading comprehension quiz and application assignments associated with it. It is possible to work ahead if needed, since all assignments are available as soon as the course opens. However, folders will close to submission after the final deadline occurs (see late policy). No discussions, quizzes or exams may be turned in late.

Some projects are designed to be completed over a series of weeks (See Fieldwork and PBL Project) but have associated deadlines listed in the schedule. Most assignments are due weekly.

College Attendance Policy

The College is not an attendance taking institution as defined by 34 CFR 668.22(b)(1) in the Code of Federal Regulations; however, students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and laboratories.

- Absences in a course may affect your final grade.
- Tardiness may also affect your final grade.
- You are responsible for all work/tests that occur during any missed class session(s) regardless of reason(s) for absence.
- If you are not well enough to attend a course session (class), you must notify the instructor as soon as possible before the scheduled class time
 - If you are unable to notify an instructor before the scheduled course time, you must contact the instructor as soon as reasonably possible.
- If you have an unavoidable conflict with a scheduled course session, you must notify the instructor before the course session.
 - If you are unable to notify an instructor before the scheduled course time, you must contact the instructor as soon as reasonably possible.

For purposes of financial aid continued attendance is determined via engagement in the course. This can be accomplished in several ways including, but not limited to, continued attendance and/or participation in on-ground class sessions, participating in D2L as prompted (e.g., responding to an instructor's email, posting to a discussion board), and/or completing and submitting assignments.)

To the extent that attendance is kept in this class it is not for the purpose of the College but is instead associated with the instructor's individual grading rubric. The attendance policy for this class is:

Class Attendance Policy

1. Each student is expected to be on time, attend all scheduled classes, and stay for the entire class session.
2. Cameras are expected to be ON during VIRTUAL Classes for attendance purposes.
3. An absence is defined as non-attendance for any reason, including illness or emergency.
4. Absences Allowed:

Fall & Spring Semester- class that meets twice a week: No more than 5 absences

Fall & Spring Semester- class that meets once a week: No more than 3 absences:

Tardies: Coming to class late (after the instructor has taken attendance) and/or leaving early (before the instructor dismisses the class) counts as a tardy. Three (3) tardies count as one (1) absence. Any student arriving more than 30 minutes after class has started or leaving more than 30 minutes before class is dismissed will be considered as absent for the entire class.

5. Any student who is absent is responsible for the content of the class missed and any assignments given. The student is encouraged to get notes and information missed from another student in the class or contact the instructor.
6. In-class assignments and quizzes cannot be made up.
7. The instructor's grade book serves as the official record for grades and attendance.

Virtual / Zoom Expectations

This class is meeting "Virtually" via ZOOM. While the course is available online, it is NOT considered an "online" course, but rather a virtual course. Attendance and participation in this course are thus similar to onground classes. In order to participate fully, you must connect with a device that has a microphone and a camera. You must be seen and heard in class to receive full attendance and participation credit. In order to preserve some privacy, while attending class, consider using a virtual background available through the ZOOM app.

While using ZOOM remember to do the following:

- turn your microphone on mute unless you are speaking
- Keep your camera on (you may be kicked out of class if camera view is not in use)
- use the chat and emoticon features to participate as well
- dress for class and sit in an appropriate location to participate fully
- use a virtual background or blur your background for privacy if needed
- communicate with the instructor any technology or personal issues that affect you during class time

Time Management/Expectations

This Hybrid course may require approximately 9-12 hours a week to complete all necessary assignments. Just like in face-to-face courses, students may be expected to expect 2-4 hours of homework per credit hour on average in a college course. Associated weekly readings and assignments will also be expected to be completed quickly so plan accordingly. Pro Tip: Treat this course like a part-time job and set aside several hours a week to dedicate to completing your projects and weekly assignments. Some weeks may be lighter than others, but the work ethic you represent will affect your ability to meet the course learning objectives and successfully pass this course.

Student Responsibilities

My goal is for you to excel in this class and to develop the skills necessary to succeed in your chosen career. However, you have the major responsibility for doing well. Achievement of course objectives will require you to know what you need to do to improve your performance and actually do it. You are expected to research all materials and software needed to complete your projects, apply the feedback returned to you, and document your process throughout. You cannot meet the objectives of this course by being a passive learner. As the semester progresses, you should be able to implement several ideas to improve your performance. In addition, you are expected to ask questions to clarify expectations, evaluations, or other aspects of the course not clear to you. Nashville State provides many student resources for academic and personal support; see the "Nashville State Community College Resources" section of this syllabus for more information.

D2L/NS Online and myNSCC

It is students' responsibility to check D2L/NS Online course shells for all enrolled courses and myNSCC, including student email, on a regular basis. These are the official communication channels between the college and students, who are responsible for the information communicated through those channels. D2L/NS Online contains specific course information and myNSCC contains information important for other purposes. To register or access Nashville State online courses, go to NS Online. NSCC web courses have a "W" section number. Any course ending with section number R50 is a TN eCampus course.

Contact Preferences

Email is my preferred, primary mode of contact. I will use the internal email provided through our D2L course to contact you. By using the course email, we will have a complete record of our correspondence over the semester. If you have advising questions or need to ask general questions, you can also email me at my office email address (kurstin.bush@nscc.edu)

Email messages should have a subject heading in addition to the subject provided by D2L. Reply times may vary from 24-48 hours but I may answer you sooner if I am available.

If you have an urgent question, you may also text me at (615) 544-5157. If I am available, I will try to reply to you asap, however, texts sent outside of my regular working hours may be responded to when I am next “at work.” Of course, we can also schedule a meeting to discuss any issues or questions by phone, in person or via zoom as well.

Instructor Presence/ Communication Plan

My primary method for interacting with you is through our class email. I will provide detailed commentary on your assignments in addition to using a scoring rubric. Even if you receive all of the points possible on an assignment, there may be comments that speak to areas not covered within the scoring guidelines. Once the deadline has passed, I will begin grading that week’s assignment and should have them graded within 7 days of submission.

Student Netiquette

I expect you, and your peers, to act as professionals throughout the entirety of the course. This includes posting weekly contributions for team communications, discussion contributions, appropriate planning methods among group members, consistent documented progress, and meeting of all established milestones and deadlines. In this course, you are expected to comply with the NSCC Standards for Netiquette, which emphasizes respect, dignity, and integrity.

Classroom Misconduct

Disruptive conduct is not allowed in the classroom. Disruptive conduct is any behavior that prevents students from learning and interferes with the ability of the instructor to teach. This may change from course to course; therefore, your individual instructors will give you guidance on what qualifies as “disruptive conduct” in their courses. Please review the Nashville State Student Code of Conduct policy. Please be aware that children are not allowed in class or to be left unattended on campus.

Academic Misconduct

You have started this academic journey to prepare for a future career. Because of this, it is important that you learn the materials being presented in your courses. For this reason, cheating, in any form, robs you of your opportunity to learn and master the material that will enable you to succeed in that future career. Nashville State has a clear Academic Misconduct Policy that you are expected to follow. In addition, your instructors will clarify what Academic Misconduct looks like and the consequences for violations in each course that you take. The instructor has the authority to assign an “F” or a “zero” for such violations or for the term grade.

- “Use of generative AI, such as ChatGPT, iA Writer, MidJourney, DALL-E, etc., is explicitly prohibited unless otherwise noted by the instructor. It is imperative that all work submitted should be your own. Any assignment that is found to have been plagiarized or to have used unauthorized AI tools may receive a zero and/or be reported for academic misconduct.”

NSCC College Resources

You do not have to tackle the challenges of higher education alone! There are many resources available to Nashville State’s online students, from tutoring to counseling to address academic honesty. You are encouraged to utilize the available student and academic support services throughout the semester as needed. This information will also help students access D2L support and technology resources including minimal expectations of learner technology skills, links to software applications, and technology requirements for D2L compatibility and services offered to students at Nashville State.

Technology Statement

- All classes at the College are web enhanced. If students have issues with account access or D2L please contact the Help Desk.
- It will be essential for students to have access to a computer and an internet connection to complete assignments, engage in online discussions, and access various course materials through D2L/NS Online course shells.
- Students may also be required to use free video conferencing platforms (ex: Zoom, Teams) for classes and meetings.
- Students will be responsible for appropriate dress while on video, to ensure a distraction free environment (mute sound as needed) and to ensure their background is neutral for others to view.
- If you have questions or concerns regarding access to a computer or internet resources, please review Nashville State’s Laptop Loaner Program and Internet Access information or contact your instructor.
- Certain publisher materials or supported technologies may not work on cell phones, mobile devices, or Chromebooks.

If you are not doing well in your course, your instructor may send you an Early Alert through your @my.nsc.edu email. This email will go to your academic advisor and Student Success advisor, as well. If you get an Early Alert, contact your instructor immediately. Instructors send these when they want to help you figure out how to get extra support to pass the course. An Early Alert does not mean that you have already failed the course. Rather, it means you are in danger of failing the course if you do not change your learning strategy. Please use an Early Alert to your advantage and as an opportunity to improve your grade.

The College is not an attendance taking institution as defined by 34 CFR 668.22\(b\)\(1\) in the Code of Federal Regulations; however, students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and laboratories.

- Absences in a course may affect a student's final grade.
- Tardiness may also affect a student's final grade.
- Students are responsible for all work/tests that occur during any missed class session(s) regardless of reason(s) for absence.

- Students who are sick or not well enough to attend class must notify the instructor as soon as possible before the scheduled class time, unless incapacitated or unable to do so. In that case, students must contact the instructor as soon as reasonably possible.
- If a student has an unavoidable conflict with a scheduled class session, students must notify the instructor, preferably before the class session, or as soon as possible.

For purposes of financial aid continued attendance is determined via engagement in the course. This can be accomplished in several ways including, but not limited to, continued attendance and/or participation in on-ground class sessions, participating in D2L as prompted (e.g., responding to an instructor's email, posting to a discussion board), and/or completing and submitting assignments.
